EXAMINER'S AMENDMENT

An examiner's amendment to the record appears below. Should the changes and/or additions be unacceptable to applicant, an amendment may be filed as provided by 37 CFR 1.312. To ensure consideration of such an amendment, it MUST be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee.

The application has been amended as follows:

-In the abstract.

The first paragraph "Method for storing datafor reading data" has been deleted. (note that the abstract should be only one paragraph). See attached corrected abstract.

The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance:

The prior art of record fail to teach or suggest an apparatus for decompressing data which are stored on a bulk memory of the random access type, where the data are organized in data blocks and arranged at the start and end of a data blocks, where a decompressing device is provided which continuously compiles the data blocks, separating the organization information, following reading from the bulk memory in accordance with their user information which they contains, as related on the basis of the concatenation thereof, and the data are then decompressed on the basis of a data decompression method, and the decompressed data are stored in a read memory, provided for this purpose, for reading by a computer system.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
